Our relationship with the Father is one borne out of Grace.

By Grace we are saved and ushered into the Kingdom of Light. By Grace, Christ birthed our redemption through death on the Cross.

Grace is help from above. Grace is available in our time of need.

Waters for the Thirsty Soul™

Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

HEBREWS 4:16 (KJV)

By Christ's death and resurrection, the separation of man from God has been completely taken away. And so we have this confidence – that if God be for us, who can be against us. This is an assurance of our belonging to the family of light.

The text says we should approach God's throne of Grace with confidence. God's grace is ours for the asking. When we face diverse trials and temptations, when we feel like we can't go on, when life seems dreary and forlorn, that's the time to lean on His Grace, to get God's help and deliverance.

It has been made available and we have been invited to approach with confidence.

We are assured of His Grace in our time of need.

Alleluia.
